A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT
relating to the amount of the discount allowed for prepayment of sales and use taxes and the allocation of certain revenue from those taxes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
SECTION 1. Section 151.424, Tax Code, is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsections (a-1), (e), and (f) to read as follows:
(a) In addition to the amount permitted to be deducted and withheld under Section 151.423, a [A] taxpayer who prepays the taxpayer's tax liability on the basis of a reasonable estimate of the tax liability for a quarter in which a prepayment is made or for a month in which a prepayment is made may deduct and withhold the lesser of the following, as determined by the comptroller under Subsection (e):
(1) 1.25 percent of the amount of the prepayment; or
(2) an annually adjusted percentage of the amount of the prepayment that yields an annualized rate of return equal to the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal on the first business day of each calendar year, plus four percent [in adion to the amount permitted to be deducted and withheld under section 151.423 of this code].
(a-1) A reasonable estimate of the tax liability under Subsection (a) must be at least 90 percent of the tax ultimately due or the amount of tax paid in the same quarter, or month, if a monthly prepayer, in the last preceding year. Failure to prepay a reasonable estimate of the tax will result in the loss of the entire prepayment discount.
(e) Not later than January 5 of each year, the comptroller shall:
(1) determine the percentage of a taxpayer's prepayment that may be deducted and withheld under Subsection (a);
and
(2) publish the percentage determined under this subsection on the comptroller's Internet website.
(f) The percentage determined under Subsection (e) applies to a deduction and withholding from a prepayment of tax liability that a taxpayer makes on or after January 15 of the year the comptroller makes the determination and before January 15 of the succeeding year.
SECTION 2. Section 151.801, Tax Code, is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsection (a-2) to read as follows:
(a) Except for the amounts allocated under Subsections (a-2), (b), and (c), all proceeds from the collection of the taxes imposed by this chapter shall be deposited to the credit of the general revenue fund.
$(a-2)$ If the percentage determined under Section 151.424(a)(2) applies in determining the amount a taxpayer may deduct and withhold under Section 151.424 from taxes imposed by this chapter, the comptroller shall determine the difference ## between the amount the taxpayer would deduct and withhold if the percentage under Section $151.424(\mathrm{a})(1)$ applied and the amount the taxpayer actually deducts and withholds under Section 151.424(a)(2). The comptroller shall deposit an amount equal to that difference in an account in the general revenue fund. Money in the account may be appropriated only to provide grants under Subchapter M, Chapter 56, Education Code.SECTION 3. The comptroller of public accounts shall make the initial determination required by Section 151.424(e), Tax Code, as added by this Act, not later than January 5, 2014.

SECTION 4. Section 151.424, Tax Code, as amended by this Act, applies to a prepayment of tax liability made on or after January 15, 2014. A prepayment of tax liability made before January 15, 2014, is governed by the law in effect immediately preceding the effective date of this Act, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION 5. The change in law made by this Act does not affect tax liability accruing before the effective date of this Act. That liability continues in effect as if this Act had not been enacted, and the former law is continued in effect for the collection of taxes due and for civil and criminal enforcement of the liability for those taxes.

SECTION 6. This Act takes effect September 1, 2013.
