23 (6) after a guardianship of the estate of a ward is 24 required to be settled as provided by Section 1204.001:

25 (A) an action brought by or on behalf of the 26 former ward against a former guardian of the ward for alleged 27 misconduct arising from the performance of the person's duties as 16 the trustee, and all other matters relating to the trust.

17 (b) For purposes of this code, in a county in which there is 18 a statutory probate court, a matter related to a guardianship 19 proceeding includes:

20 (1) all matters and actions described in Subsection

26 guardianship pending in the statutory probate court is a party.

1                   CHAPTER 1022. JURISDICTION

2           Sec. 1022.001. GENERAL PROBATE COURT JURISDICTION IN 3 GUARDIANSHIP PROCEEDINGS; APPEALS. (a) All guardianship 4 proceedings must be filed and heard in a court exercising original 5 probate jurisdiction. The court exercising original probate 6 jurisdiction also has jurisdiction of all matters related to the 7 guardianship proceeding as specified in Section 1021.001 for that 8 type of court.

9           (b) A probate court may exercise pendent and ancillary 10 jurisdiction as necessary to promote judicial efficiency and 11 economy.

12           (c) A final order issued by a probate court is appealable to 13 the court of appeals.

14           Sec. 1022.002. ORIGINAL JURISDICTION FOR GUARDIANSHIP
15 PROCEEDINGS. (a) In a county in which there is no statutory 16 probate court or county court at law exercising original probate 17 jurisdiction, the county court has original jurisdiction of 18 guardianship proceedings.

19           (b) In a county in which there is no statutory probate 20 court, but in which there is a county court at law exercising 21 original probate jurisdiction, the county court at law exercising 22 original probate jurisdiction and the county court have concurrent 23 original jurisdiction of guardianship proceedings, unless 24 otherwise provided by law. The judge of a county court may hear 25 guardianship proceedings while sitting for the judge of any other 26 county court.

27           (c) In a county in which there is a statutory probate court,

1 the statutory probate court has original jurisdiction of 2 guardianship proceedings.

3 Sec. 1022.003. JURISDICTION OF CONTESTED GUARDIANSHIP
4 PROCEEDING IN COUNTY WITH NO STATUTORY PROBATE COURT OR COUNTY
5 COURT AT LAW. (a) In a county in which there is no statutory
6 probate court or county court at law exercising original probate
7 jurisdiction, when a matter in a guardianship proceeding is 8 contested, the judge of the county court may, on the judge's own
9 motion, or shall, on the motion of any party to the proceeding,
10 according to the motion:

11 (1) request the assignment of a statutory probate
12 court judge to hear the contested matter, as provided by Section 13 25.0022, Government Code; or

14 (2) transfer the contested matter to the district 15 court, which may then hear the contested matter as if originally 16 filed in the district court.

17 (b) If a party to a guardianship proceeding files a motion 18 for the assignment of a statutory probate court judge to hear a 19 contested matter in the proceeding before the judge of the county 20 court transfers the contested matter to a district court under this 21 section, the county judge shall grant the motion for the assignment 22 of a statutory probate court judge and may not transfer the matter 23 to the district court unless the party withdraws the motion.

24 (c) If a judge of a county court requests the assignment of a 25 statutory probate court judge to hear a contested matter in a 26 guardianship proceeding on the judge's own motion or on the motion 27 of a party to the proceeding as provided by this section, the judge

1 may request that the statutory probate court judge be assigned to 2 the entire proceeding on the judge's own motion or on the motion of 3 a party.

4 (d) A party to a guardianship proceeding may file a motion
5 for the assignment of a statutory probate court judge under this 6 section before a matter in the proceeding becomes contested, and 7 the motion is given effect as a motion for assignment of a statutory 8 probate court judge under Subsection (a) if the matter later 9 becomes contested.

10 (e) Notwithstanding any other law, a transfer of a contested 11 matter in a guardianship proceeding to a district court under any 12 authority other than the authority provided by this section:

- 13 (1) is disregarded for purposes of this section; and 14 (2) does not defeat the right of a party to the 15 proceeding to have the matter assigned to a statutory probate court 16 judge in accordance with this section.

17 (f) A statutory probate court judge assigned to a contested
18 matter in a guardianship proceeding or to the entire proceeding 19 under this section has the jurisdiction and authority granted to a 20 statutory probate court by this code. A statutory probate court 21 judge assigned to hear only the contested matter in a guardianship 22 proceeding shall, on resolution of the matter, including any appeal 23 of the matter, return the matter to the county court for further 24 proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of the statutory 25 probate court or court of appeals, as applicable. A statutory 26 probate court judge assigned to the entire guardianship proceeding
27 as provided by Subsection (c) shall, on resolution of the contested

1 matter in the proceeding, including any appeal of the matter,
2 return the entire proceeding to the county court for further
3 proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of the statutory 4 probate court or court of appeals, as applicable.

5 (g) A district court to which a contested matter in a 6 guardianship proceeding is transferred under this section has the 7 jurisdiction and authority granted to a statutory probate court by 8 this code. On resolution of a contested matter transferred to the 9 district court under this section, including any appeal of the 10 matter, the district court shall return the matter to the county 11 court for further proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of 12 the district court or court of appeals, as applicable.

13 (h) If only the contested matter in a guardianship 14 proceeding is assigned to a statutory probate court judge under 15 this section, or if the contested matter in a guardianship 16 proceeding is transferred to a district court under this section, 17 the county court shall continue to exercise jurisdiction over the 18 management of the guardianship, other than a contested matter, 19 until final disposition of the contested matter is made in 20 accordance with this section. Any matter related to a guardianship 21 proceeding in which a contested matter is transferred to a district 22 court may be brought in the district court. The district court in 23 which a matter related to the proceeding is filed may, on the 24 court's own motion or on the motion of any party, find that the 25 matter is not a contested matter and transfer the matter to the 26 county court with jurisdiction of the management of the 27 guardianship.

1        (i) If a contested matter in a guardianship proceeding is 2 transferred to a district court under this section, the district
3 court has jurisdiction of any contested matter in the proceeding
4 that is subsequently filed, and the county court shall transfer 5 those contested matters to the district court. If a statutory 6 probate court judge is assigned under this section to hear a 7 contested matter in a guardianship proceeding, the statutory 8 probate court judge shall be assigned to hear any contested matter 9 in the proceeding that is subsequently filed.

10       (j) The clerk of a district court to which a contested 11 matter in a guardianship proceeding is transferred under this 12 section may perform in relation to the transferred matter any 13 function a county clerk may perform with respect to that type of 14 matter.

15       Sec. 1022.004. JURISDICTION OF CONTESTED GUARDIANSHIP
16 PROCEEDING IN COUNTY WITH NO STATUTORY PROBATE COURT. (a) In a 17 county in which there is no statutory probate court, but in which 18 there is a county court at law exercising original probate
19 jurisdiction, when a matter in a guardianship proceeding is 20 contested, the judge of the county court may, on the judge's own
21 motion, or shall, on the motion of any party to the proceeding, 22 transfer the contested matter to the county court at law. In 23 addition, the judge of the county court, on the judge's own motion 24 or on the motion of a party to the proceeding, may transfer the 25 entire proceeding to the county court at law.

26       (b) A county court at law to which a proceeding is 27 transferred under this section may hear the proceeding as if

1 originally filed in that court. If only a contested matter in the 2 proceeding is transferred, on the resolution of the matter, the 3 matter shall be returned to the county court for further 4 proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of the county court at 5 law.

6 Sec. 1022.005. EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF GUARDIANSHIP
7 PROCEEDING IN COUNTY WITH STATUTORY PROBATE COURT. (a) In a 8 county in which there is a statutory probate court, the statutory 9 probate court has exclusive jurisdiction of all guardianship 10 proceedings, regardless of whether contested or uncontested.

11 (b) A cause of action related to a guardianship proceeding 12 of which the statutory probate court has exclusive jurisdiction as 13 provided by Subsection (a) must be brought in the statutory probate 14 court unless the jurisdiction of the statutory probate court is 15 concurrent with the jurisdiction of a district court as provided by 16 Section 1022.006 or with the jurisdiction of any other court.

17 Sec. 1022.006. CONCURRENT JURISDICTION WITH DISTRICT
18 COURT. A statutory probate court has concurrent jurisdiction with 19 the district court in:

20 (1) a personal injury, survival, or wrongful death
21 action by or against a person in the person's capacity as a 22 guardian; and

23 (2) an action involving a guardian in which each other 24 party aligned with the guardian is not an interested person in the 25 guardianship.

26 Sec. 1022.007. TRANSFER OF PROCEEDING BY STATUTORY PROBATE
27 COURT. (a) A judge of a statutory probate court, on the motion of 1 a party to the action or of a person interested in the guardianship, 2 may:

3 (1) transfer to the judge's court from a district,
4 county, or statutory court a cause of action that is a matter
5 related to a guardianship proceeding pending in the statutory 6 probate court, including a cause of action that is a matter related 7 to a guardianship proceeding pending in the statutory probate court 8 and in which the guardian, ward, or proposed ward in the pending 9 guardianship proceeding is a party; and

10 (2) consolidate the transferred cause of action with 11 the guardianship proceeding to which it relates and any other 12 proceedings in the statutory probate court that are related to the 13 guardianship proceeding.

14 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the 15 proper venue for an action by or against a guardian, ward, or 16 proposed ward for personal injury, death, or property damages is 17 determined under Section 15.007, Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

18 Sec. 1022.008. TRANSFER OF CONTESTED GUARDIANSHIP OF THE 19 PERSON OF A MINOR. (a) If an interested person contests an 20 application for the appointment of a guardian of the person of a 21 minor or an interested person seeks the removal of a guardian of the 22 person of a minor, the judge, on the judge's own motion, may 23 transfer all matters related to the guardianship proceeding to a 24 court of competent jurisdiction in which a suit affecting the 25 parent-child relationship under the Family Code is pending.

26 CHAPTER 1023. VENUE

27 Sec. 1023.002. CONCURRENT VENUE AND TRANSFER FOR WANT OF

1 VENUE. (a) If two or more courts have concurrent venue of a 2 guardianship proceeding, the court in which an application for a 3 guardianship proceeding is initially filed has and retains 4 jurisdiction of the proceeding. A proceeding is considered
5 commenced by the filing of an application alleging facts sufficient 6 to confer venue, and the proceeding initially legally commenced 7 extends to all of the property of the guardianship estate.

8 Sec. 1023.003. APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER OF GUARDIANSHIP TO 9 ANOTHER COUNTY. When a guardian or any other person desires to 10 transfer the transaction of the business of the guardianship from 11 one county to another, the person shall file a written application 12 in the court in which the guardianship is pending stating the reason 13 for the transfer.

14 Sec. 1023.004. NOTICE. (a) On filing an application to 15 transfer a guardianship to another county, the sureties on the bond 16 of the guardian shall be cited by personal service to appear and 17 show cause why the application should not be granted.

18 Sec. 1023.005. COURT ACTION. (a) On hearing an 19 application under Section 1023.003, if good cause is not shown to 20 deny the application and it appears that transfer of the 21 guardianship is in the best interests of the ward, the court shall 22 enter an order authorizing the transfer on payment on behalf of the 23 estate of all accrued costs.

24 (b) In an order entered under Subsection (a), the court 25 shall require the guardian, not later than the 20th day after the 26 date the order is entered, to:

27 (1) give a new bond payable to the judge of the court

1 to which the guardianship is transferred; or

2 (2) file a rider to an existing bond noting the court 3 to which the guardianship is transferred.

4 Sec. 1023.006. TRANSFER OF RECORD. When an order of 5 transfer is made under Section 1023.005, the clerk shall record any 6 unrecorded papers of the guardianship required to be recorded. On 7 payment of the clerk's fee, the clerk shall transmit to the county
8 clerk of the county to which the guardianship was ordered
9 transferred:

10 (1) the case file of the guardianship proceedings; and

11 (2) a certified copy of the index of the guardianship 12 records.

13 Sec. 1023.007. TRANSFER EFFECTIVE. The order transferring 14 a guardianship does not take effect until:

15 (1) the case file and a certified copy of the index
16 required by Section 1023.006 are filed in the office of the county
17 clerk of the county to which the guardianship was ordered 18 transferred; and

19 (2) a certificate under the clerk's official seal and 20 reporting the filing of the case file and a certified copy of the 21 index is filed in the court ordering the transfer by the county
22 clerk of the county to which the guardianship was ordered
23 transferred.

24 Sec. 1023.008. CONTINUATION OF GUARDIANSHIP. When a 25 guardianship is transferred from one county to another in 26 accordance with this chapter, the guardianship proceeds in the 27 court to which it was transferred as if it had been originally

1 commenced in that court. It is not necessary to record in the 2 receiving court any of the papers in the case that were recorded in 3 the court from which the case was transferred.

4 Sec. 1023.009. NEW GUARDIAN APPOINTED ON TRANSFER. If it 5 appears to the court that transfer of the guardianship is in the 6 best interests of the ward, but that because of the transfer it is 7 not in the best interests of the ward for the guardian of the estate 8 to continue to serve in that capacity, the court may in its order of 9 transfer revoke the letters of guardianship and appoint a new 10 guardian, and the former guardian shall account for and deliver the 11 estate as provided by this title in a case in which a guardian 12 resigns.

13 Sec. 1023.010. REVIEW OF TRANSFERRED GUARDIANSHIP. Not 14 later than the 90th day after the date the transfer of the 15 guardianship takes effect under Section 1023.007, the court to 16 which the guardianship was transferred shall hold a hearing to 17 consider modifying the rights, duties, and powers of the guardian 18 or any other provisions of the transferred guardianship.

19 (b) Subsections (b) and (c), Section 609, Texas Probate 20 Code, are transferred to Chapter 1022, Estates Code, as added by 21 Subsection (a) of this section, and redesignated as Subsections (b) 22 and (c), Section 1022.008, Estates Code.

23 (c) Section 610, Texas Probate Code, is transferred to 24 Chapter 1023, Estates Code, as added by Subsection (a) of this 25 section, and redesignated as Section 1023.001, Estates Code.

26 (d) Subsections (b), (c), and (d), Section 611, Texas 27 Probate Code, are transferred to Chapter 1023, Estates Code, as

1 added by Subsection (a) of this section, and redesignated as 19           (e) The court shall hold a hearing on an application for 20 reinstatement under this section as soon as practicable after the 21 application is filed, but not later than the 60th day after the date 22 the court signed the order of removal. If, at the conclusion of the 23 [a] hearing [under this section], the court is satisfied by a
