25 medical association.
- 26 (b) The executive commissioner of the Health and Human 27 Services Commission shall appoint a task force member to serve as

1 presiding officer of the task force.

2 Sec. 172.003. DUTIES OF TASK FORCE. The task force shall 3 meet at the call of the presiding officer to:

4 (1) examine the impact of domestic violence on 5 maternal and infant mortality, the health of mothers, and the 6 health and development of fetuses, infants, and children;

7 (2) identify the health care services available to 8 mothers and children compared to the need for the services and 9 opportunities for improving the services provided to these groups;

10 (3) identify methods to effectively include domestic 11 violence information and support in educational standards for 12 educators and protocols for health care providers; and

13 (4) investigate and make recommendations relating to 14 the coordination of health care services for young children and 15 pregnant and postpartum women who are victims of domestic violence, 16 including recommendations for improving early screening and 17 detection and public awareness efforts.

18 Sec. 172.004. REPORT. Not later than September 1, 2015, the 19 task force shall submit a report to the governor, the lieutenant 20 governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the 21 presiding officers of the standing committees of the legislature 22 having primary jurisdiction over health and human services, the 23 executive commissioner of the Health and Human Services Commission, 24 and the commissioner of state health services containing:

25 (1) the findings and legislative, policy, and research
26 recommendations of the task force; and

27 (2) a description of the activities of the task force.

1 Sec. 172.005. EXPIRATION. The task force is abolished and 2 this chapter expires January 1, 2016.

3 SECTION 2. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 4 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 5 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 6 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 7 Act takes effect September 1, 2013.
