

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 72

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to welcome the Texas Council on Family Violence on the occasion of its February 15, 2013, visit to the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Council on Family Violence is one of the largest domestic violence organizations in the country; for more than three decades, it has been a national leader in the efforts to address the needs of those affected by this serious problem; and

WHEREAS, This exceptional organization serves its constituents through its support of service providers, its advocacy on behalf of domestic violence victims before the legislature, and its work in developing and instituting prevention programs focused on ending domestic violence by discovering and addressing its root causes; and

WHEREAS, The council provides current and comprehensive information to law enforcement agencies, legal advocates, educators, and the community at large so that the issue of domestic violence can be met more effectively; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Council on Family Violence has had a profound impact on the lives of those affected by domestic violence, and it is truly fitting that it be recognized for its outstanding work; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, hereby commend the Texas Council on Family Violence on its exemplary service on behalf of the victims of domestic violence and extend to its representatives best wishes for a memorable and productive visit to the State Capitol; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the council as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.

Nelson

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on January 28, 2013.
