

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 412

WHEREAS, Members of young professionals organizations from across the state are gathering in Austin on March 6, 2013, to gain further insight into the workings of state government; and

WHEREAS, Young professionals are one of the Lone Star State's most important resources, contributing greatly to the economic prosperity of present and future generations; groups such as those in attendance today allow emerging leaders to network, learn from one another, and develop vital career skills; and

WHEREAS, With the 83rd Legislative Session well under way, the Capitol is a source of great activity, offering visitors an excellent opportunity to see their state government in action; the civic-minded young Texans here today have demonstrated commendable initiative and enthusiasm about the democratic process, which will serve them well throughout the coming years; and

WHEREAS, By striving to strengthen their professional ties and build on their knowledge about state government, these dynamic young Texans are helping to create a brighter and more promising future for the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, hereby recognize March 6, 2013, as Young Professionals Day at the State Capitol and extend to all those visiting sincere best wishes for a memorable and productive day in Austin.

West

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on March 6, 2013.
