

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 673

WHEREAS, The boys' basketball team of Fort Bend Travis High School in Richmond reached the pinnacle of success by winning the University Interscholastic League 5A state championship on March 9, 2013, at the Frank Erwin Center in Austin; and

WHEREAS, The Tigers finished with a record of 33 wins and just 5 defeats, and their impressive run through the postseason included victories over Houston Clear Lake, Pearland, Friendswood Clear Brook, Houston Westside, and Fort Bend Bush High Schools to secure a place in the state tournament; in the 5A semifinals, they scored a 60-52 triumph over Richardson Berkner High School to advance to the title contest; and

WHEREAS, Matching up against South Grand Prairie High School with the championship on the line, Travis found itself in a hard-fought, low-scoring battle; the team received a major boost from Andrew Harrison, who scored 16 points and grabbed 9 rebounds in a performance that earned him the game's Most Valuable Player award; when the final buzzer sounded, the Tigers had claimed a 46-38 win, and their celebration was all the sweeter because the team had fallen just short of its championship goal in 2012, when it lost in the tournament final; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Harrison was joined on the All-Tournament team by his twin brother, Aaron Harrison; the Tigers also received significant contributions throughout the season from the other members of the roster: John Burnett, Quinten Davis, Chris Idi, Derrick Nwaneti, Efiom Ita, Nathan Bertness, Tyrone Jordan, Darion Roquemore, Juwan Williams, Daniel Chika, and David Tillman; and

WHEREAS, These dedicated competitors were ably guided by head coach Craig Brownson and assistant coaches Brett Nixon, Brian Martinez, Stanley Parker, and Michael O'Connor; additional support was provided by managers Josh Onuogu, Mark Taylor, and Juan Yanez and trainers Nia Lewis and Angel Tatlonghari; and

WHEREAS, Winning a state championship is the goal of every high school athlete; the hard work and skill demonstrated by the Travis High School players have enabled them to realize that dream, and they will treasure the memory of this outstanding accomplishment for many years to come; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, hereby congratulate the Fort Bend Travis High School boys' basketball team on winning the University Interscholastic League 5A state championship and extend to the team's players, coaches, and staff sincere best wishes for continued success; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for the team as an expression of high regard by the Texas Senate.
