

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 738

In Memory
of
Pamela Hsiu Lo Day

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas honors and commemorates the life of Pamela Hsiu Lo Day, who died April 7, 2013, at the age of 62; and

WHEREAS, This adoptive Texan led an impressive and well-traveled life; she was born a British subject in Calcutta, India, on August 15, 1950, and her family moved to Hong Kong when she was 10 years old; and

WHEREAS, Pamela was a student at the University of Hong Kong when she met her future husband, Wayne Day, in 1970; the couple married the following year at Grand Forks Air Force Base in North Dakota, and in the ensuing years, they were stationed overseas and lived in Turkey and the Philippines; and

WHEREAS, The Day family returned to the United States in 1976 and Pamela resumed her college education; she earned a bachelor's degree from Texas Wesleyan University and a master's degree from The University of Texas at Arlington; and

WHEREAS, For the rest of her life, Pamela remained deeply committed to education, and she served in the Fort Worth Independent School District as an adult education aide, an elementary school teacher, and an assistant principal before becoming principal of Sam Rosen Elementary School; she later transferred to Charles Nash Elementary School, which achieved Exemplary status multiple times during her 13-year tenure; and

WHEREAS, This much-loved educator was also revered outside the schoolhouse; she loved to laugh and play practical jokes, and she enjoyed operating her ham radio during her international travels; Pamela Day was profoundly devoted to her family, and she will long be remembered for her passion for life and her love of learning; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, hereby extend sincere condolences to the bereaved family of Pamela Hsiu Lo Day; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for her family as an expression of deepest sympathy from the Texas Senate, and that when the Senate adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Pamela Day.

Davis

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on April 22, 2013, by a rising vote.

Secretary of the Senate

Member, Texas Senate