

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 887

WHEREAS, Dick and Horacene Daugird, founders of the Lighthouse Charity Team, have been named the 2013 Citizens of the Year by the Galveston County Daily News; and

WHEREAS, The organization takes its name from the landmark building that houses the Daugirds' insurance office, which was constructed to resemble a lighthouse; the couple's involvement in charitable work began in 1984, when they agreed to provide meals for the local Muscular Dystrophy Association telethon; and

WHEREAS, With the success of that initial event, Mr. and Mrs. Daugird saw an opportunity to help the greater community, and they established the Lighthouse Charity Team, which provides food at cost for nonprofit fund-raisers; averaging about 100 events a year for the past decade, the operation has helped to support the Boy Scouts, Jaycees, and Rotary Club, as well as the Galveston County Food Bank, the Friendswood Volunteer Fire Department, the Galveston Police Department Blue Santa program, and Wounded Warriors; the team's generous efforts have also benefited individuals affected by Hurricanes Rita, Ike, and Katrina and the devastating fires in Central Texas; and

WHEREAS, Those individuals who step forward to share their time and resources are indeed deserving of gratitude, and it is a pleasure to honor Dick and Horacene Daugird for their contributions to the Gulf Coast community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, hereby congratulate Dick and Horacene Daugird on being named the 2013 Citizens of the Year by the Galveston County Daily News; and, be it further
