

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 13, 2013

TO: Honorable Bob Deuell, Chair, Senate Committee on Economic Development

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB26 by Martinez Fischer (Relating to unemployment compensation eligibility and chargebacks regarding certain persons who are victims or whose immediate family members are victims of sexual assault.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Labor Code relating to unemployment compensation eligibility and chargebacks regarding certain persons who are victims or whose immediate family members are victims of sexual assault.

Based on information provided by the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC), it is assumed that benefits paid under this bill would not represent a significant impact to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund. It is also assumed that duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
