

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 1, 2013

TO: Honorable Tryon D. Lewis, Chair, House Committee On Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB191 by Dutton (Relating to the modification or enforcement of a child support order during the obligor's confinement in jail or prison.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

This bill would amend the Family Code and provide a new defense against a motion for enforcement of child support if a child support obligor is confined in jail or prison for 90 consecutive days.

The Office of the Attorney General and the Office of Court Administration have determined that the bill would not result in a significant fiscal impact to the State and could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
