

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 17, 2013

TO: Honorable Robert Duncan, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1632 by Fletcher (Relating to the confidentiality of certain identifying information of peace officers, county jailers, security officers, employees of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice or a prosecutor's office, or judges and their spouses.), Committee Report 2nd House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would allow for a peace officer, jailer, or employee of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) to make confidential his or her residential address on a registration application.

The bill would add date of birth to the list of confidential information described by Section 552.1175(b), Government Code, and add federal and state judges to the list of employees to whom this section applies.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
