

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 26, 2013

TO: Honorable Tan Parker, Chair, House Committee on Corrections

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2877 by Sheffield, J. D. (Relating to the applicability of certain claims for lost or damaged property by inmates to the Texas Theft Liability Act.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to the applicability of certain claims for lost or damaged property by Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) inmates to the Texas Theft Liability Act. Under the bill's provisions, a claim made by a TDCJ inmate for property lost or damaged by TDCJ's institutional division would not apply to the Texas Theft Liability Act. TDCJ and the Office of Court Administration have determined that the bill would not result in a significant fiscal impact to the State. The bill would take effect September 1, 2013.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
