

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 19, 2013

TO: Honorable Abel Herrero, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3058 by Herrero (Relating to restricting access to records of children convicted of or receiving deferred disposition for certain fine-only misdemeanors.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Article 44.2811, Code of Criminal Procedure, to expand confidentiality of a child's records to apply to a child who received a dismissal after deferred disposition for a fine-only misdemeanor other than a traffic offense.

The Office of Court Administration reported that the bill may result in fewer expunctions (and the associated $30 fee), however fiscal impact to state and local judiciaries are is not expected to be significant.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
