

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 15, 2013

TO: Honorable Robert Duncan, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3105 by Morrison (Relating to availability of certain benefits under individual accident and health insurance policies.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Insurance Code relating to availability of certain benefits under individual accident and health insurance policies. The bill would repeal Section 1201.227 of the Insurance Code relating to intoxicants and narcotics. The bill would apply to individual accident and health insurance policies delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed on or after January 1, 2014.

Based on information provided by The Texas Department of Insurance, it is assumed that implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished utilizing existing staff and resources.

Based on information provided by the Teacher Retirement System, Texas A&M University System, and the UT System Administration, the bill would have no fiscal impact.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
