

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 22, 2013

TO: Honorable Abel Herrero, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3210 by Sheffield, J. D. (Relating to sex offender treatment as a condition of parole or mandatory supervision for certain releasees.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code relating to sex offender treatment as a condition of parole or mandatory supervision for certain releasees. It has been determined that the bill's provisions complement existing statutory authority and case law, would not have a significant fiscal impact to the State, and could be carried out within the Texas Department of Criminal Justice's and the Board of Pardons and Paroles' existing resources. The bill would take effect September 1, 2013.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
