

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2013

TO: Honorable Brandon Creighton, Chair, House Committee on Federalism & Fiscal Responsibility, Select

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HJR109 by Laubenberg (Proposing a constitutional amendment authorizing certain payment for health care services and prohibiting requiring participation in a mandatory health care system.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated, other than the cost of publication.

The cost to the state for publication of the resolution is $108,921.

The constitutional amendment would prohibit the state, an agency of the state, or a health care system (including a health insurer or health benefit plan) from: imposing a fine or penalty on an individual or their employer for direct payment for a health care service; prohibiting or imposing a fine or penalty on a health care provider for billing or accepting direct payment for a health care service; or requiring an individual, employer, or health care provider to participate in a health care system, or fining or penalizing them for failing to participate.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
