

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 83RD LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 16, 2013

TO: Honorable Tryon D. Lewis, Chair, House Committee on Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB110 by West (Relating to eligibility for compensation of persons wrongfully imprisoned.), Committee Report 2nd House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to eligibility for compensation by persons wrongfully imprisoned. Under the provisions of the bill, a person seeking compensation who received a pardon or was granted relief before September 1, 1998, and who has not previously received compensation under law, may file for compensation not later than September 1, 2016. The bill would provide that a person would not be entitled to compensation for any part of a sentence in prison during which the person was also serving a concurrent sentence for another wrongful conviction and had already received compensation. It is anticipated the bill's provisions would not have a significant fiscal impact on the State. The bill would take effect on September 1, 2013.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
