Senate Amendments
Section-by-Section Analysis

HOUSE VERSION

SECTION 1. Section 522.011(c), Transportation Code, is amended to read as follows:

(c) An offense under this section is a ~~[Class C]~~ misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000, except that the offense is a Class B misdemeanor if it is shown on the trial of the offense that the defendant was convicted of an offense under this section in the year preceding the date of the offense

SENATE VERSION (IE)

SECTION 1. Section 522.011, Transportation Code, is amended by amending Subsections (a) and (c) and adding Subsections (e) and (f) to read as follows: [FA2(1)]

(a) A person may not drive a commercial motor vehicle unless:

(1) the person:

(A) has in the person's immediate possession a commercial driver's license issued by the department appropriate for the class of vehicle being driven; and

(B) is not disqualified or subject to an out-of-service order;

(2) the person:

(A) has in the person's immediate possession a commercial ~~[driver]~~ learner's permit and driver's license issued by the department; and

(B) is accompanied by the holder of a commercial driver's license issued by the department with any necessary endorsements appropriate for the class of vehicle being driven, and the license holder:

(i) for the purpose of giving instruction in driving the vehicle, at all times occupies a seat beside the permit holder or, in the case of a passenger vehicle, directly behind the driver in a location that allows for direct observation and supervision of the permit holder ~~[for the purpose of giving instruction in driving the vehicle]~~; and

(ii) is not disqualified or subject to an out-of-service order; or

(3) the person is authorized to drive the vehicle under Section 522.015. [FA2(2)]

(c) An offense under this section is a Class C misdemeanor, except that the offense is a Class B misdemeanor if it is shown on the trial of the offense that the defendant was convicted of an offense under this section in the year preceding the date of the offense that is the subject of the trial. that is the subject of the trial.

(e) It is a defense to prosecution for a violation of Subsection (a)(2)(A) if the person charged produces in court a commercial learner's permit or driver's license, as appropriate, that:
(1) was issued to the person; and
(2) was valid when the offense was committed.
(f) The court may assess a defendant an administrative fee not to exceed $10 if a charge under this section is dismissed because of the defense listed under Subsection (e). [FA2(3)]

SECTION 2. The change in law made by this Act applies only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of this Act. An offense committed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose. For purposes of this section, an offense was committed before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurred before that date.

SECTION 2. No equivalent provision. [Deleted by FA2(4)]

SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2013.

SECTION 3. Same as House version.

No equivalent provision.

SECTION __. Section 522.003, Transportation Code, is amended by amending Subdivisions (4), (12), (22), (23), and (25) and adding Subdivisions (22-a) and (23-a) to read as follows:
(4) "Commercial [~~driver~~] learner's permit" means a permit [~~commercial driver's license~~] that restricts the holder to driving a commercial motor vehicle as provided by Section 522.011(a)(2)(B).
(12) "Driver's license" has the meaning assigned by Section 521.001, except the term does not include a commercial

On receipt of notice from the other state that the grounds for denial of the renewal of the commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit based on the ~~[license]~~ holder's previous failure to appear or failure to pay a fine and costs previously reported by that state under Section 522.0541 have ceased to exist, the department shall renew the person's commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit.
[FA2(5)]

SECTION ____ Sections 522.061(a), (b), and (c), Transportation Code, are amended to read as follows:
(a) A person who holds or is required to hold a commercial driver's license or a commercial learner's permit under this chapter and who is convicted in another state of violating a state law or local ordinance relating to motor vehicle traffic control shall notify the department in the manner specified by the department not later than the seventh day after the date of conviction.
(b) A person who holds or is required to hold a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit under this chapter and who is convicted in this state or another state of violating a state law or local ordinance relating to motor vehicle traffic control, including a law regulating the operation of vehicles on highways, shall notify the person's employer in writing of the conviction not later than the seventh day after the date of conviction.
(c) A notification to the department or an employer must be in writing and must contain:
(1) the driver's full name;
(2) the driver's license or permit number;
(3) the date of conviction;

(b) Except as provided by this subsection, this ~~[This]~~ subsection applies to a violation committed while operating any type of motor vehicle, including a commercial motor vehicle~~[-, except as provided by this subsection]~~. A person who holds a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit is disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle for one year:

(1) if convicted of three violations of a law that regulates the operation of a motor vehicle at a railroad grade crossing that occur within a three-year period;

(2) on first conviction of:

(A) driving a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, including a violation of Section 49.04~~2~~, 49.045, or 49.07, Penal Code;

(B) leaving the scene of an accident involving a motor vehicle driven by the person;

(C) using a motor vehicle in the commission of a felony, other than a felony described by Subsection (d)(2);

(D) causing the death of another person through the negligent or criminal operation of a motor vehicle; or

(E) driving a commercial motor vehicle while the person's commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit is revoked, suspended, or canceled, or while the person is disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle, for an action or conduct that occurred while operating a commercial motor vehicle;

(3) for refusing to submit to a test under Chapter 724 to determine the person's alcohol concentration or the presence in the person's body of a controlled substance or drug while operating a motor vehicle in a public place; or

(4) if an analysis of the person's blood, breath, or urine under Chapter 522, 524, or 724 determines that the person:

PROHIBITED; OFFENSE. (a) In this section:

(1) "Driving" means operating a vehicle on a highway, including while temporarily stopped because of traffic, a traffic control device, or other momentary delays. The term does not include stationary operation of the vehicle alongside or off of a highway in a safe location.

(2) "Text message" means a message generated by manually entering alphanumeric characters into an electronic device. The term includes a short message service, e-mail, instant message, a command or request to access an Internet website, a voice communication using a wireless communication device that requires pressing more than one button to initiate or terminate, or any other form of electronic text for present or future communication.

(b) The operator of a commercial motor vehicle may not generate, send, or read a text message while driving the vehicle.

(c) A person who violates Subsection (b) commits an offense. An offense under this subsection is a Class C misdemeanor.

(d) This section does not apply to:

(1) an operator of a commercial motor vehicle who:

(A) inputs, selects, or reads information on a global positioning or navigation system;

(B) presses a single button to initiate or terminate a voice communication using a wireless communication device;

(C) uses a device capable of performing multiple functions, such as a fleet management system, dispatch service, smart phone, citizens band radio, or music player, in a manner that is not prohibited by this section; or

(D) communicates with law enforcement officials or other emergency services personnel; or

(2) a law enforcement officer, firefighter, or operator of an
