Sec. 45.002. APPLICABILITY. (a) This chapter applies to a rule, order, decision, practice, or other exercise of authority by the department.

Sec. 45.003. CHILD WELFARE SERVICES PROVIDERS PROTECTED. The department or any person that contracts with this state or operates under department authority to refer or place children for child welfare services may not discriminate or take any adverse action against a child welfare services provider on the basis, wholly or partly, that the provider:

(1) has declined or will decline to provide, facilitate, or refer a person for child welfare services that conflict with, or under circumstances that conflict with, the provider's sincerely held religious beliefs;

(2) provides or intends to provide children under the control, care, guardianship, or direction of the child welfare services provider with a religious education, including through placing the children in a private or parochial school or otherwise providing a religious education in accordance with the laws of this state; or

(3) has declined or will decline to provide, facilitate, or refer a person for abortions, contraceptives, or drugs, devices, or services that are potentially abortion-inducing.

Sec. 45.004. PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION. A child welfare services provider may assert an actual or threatened violation of this chapter as a claim or defense in a judicial or administrative proceeding and obtain the relief specified in Section 45.005.

Sec. 45.005. REMEDIES. A child welfare services provider who successfully asserts a claim or defense under this chapter is entitled to recover:

(1) declaratory relief;

(2) injunctive relief to prevent the threatened or continued adverse action or effects of the action on the child welfare services provider;

(3) compensatory damages for pecuniary and nonpecuniary losses;

(4) punitive damages; and

(5) reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and other reasonable expenses.

Sec. 45.006. TWO-YEAR LIMITATIONS PERIOD. A child welfare services provider must bring an action to assert a claim for damages under this chapter not later than the second anniversary of the date the provider actually knew of the violation of this chapter.

Sec. 45.007. IMMUNITY WAIVED. (a) Sovereign, governmental, and qualified immunity to suit and from liability are waived and abolished to the extent of liability created by Section 45.005, and a claimant may sue the department or department official for damages allowed by that section.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), this chapter does not waive or abolish sovereign immunity to suit and from liability under the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Sec. 45.008. EFFECT ON RIGHTS; CONSTRUCTION OF LAW. (a) This chapter may not be construed to authorize the department to burden a person's free exercise of religion.

(b) The protections of religious freedom afforded by this chapter are in addition to the protections provided under federal or state law and the constitutions of this state and the United States.

(c) This chapter may not be construed to supersede any law of this state that is equally as protective of religious beliefs as, or more protective of religious beliefs than, this chapter.

(d) This chapter may not be considered to narrow the meaning or application of any other law protecting religious beliefs.

(e) This chapter may not be construed in a manner that allows a person to decline intake of a child into a welfare services program funded by this state.

(f) This chapter may not be construed to prevent law enforcement officers from exercising duties imposed on the officers under the Family Code and the Penal Code.

(g) This chapter may not be construed to allow a child welfare services provider to deprive a minor of the rights, including the right to medical care, provided by applicable provisions of Chapter 42 and of Chapter 263, Family Code.

Sec. 45.009. INTERPRETATION. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its remedial and deterrent purposes.
