

Amend SB 1168 by striking the new Subsection (c) of Section 209.0059, Property Code, as added by second reading Amendment No. 7 by D. Miller and substituting the following:

(c) In a residential development with ten or fewer lots for which the declaration was recorded before January 1, 2015, a person may not vote in a property owners' association election unless the person is subject to a dedicatory instrument governing the association through which the association exercises its authority.