

Amend CSSJR 5 (house committee report) on page 1, line 17, by adding the following after the underlined period:

The comptroller may not make a deposit otherwise required by this subsection during the next state fiscal biennium if, in preparing the statement required by Section 49a, Article III, of this constitution, for that next state fiscal biennium, the comptroller estimates that the total amount of anticipated revenue for that biennium will be less than the most recent estimate of the total amount of received and anticipated revenue for the then-current state fiscal biennium.