Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

S.B. 1902 reforms current nondisclosure law to allow individuals convicted of certain misdemeanors to be eligible to receive an order of nondisclosure (OND) and to streamline the process to receive an OND for those with certain eligible misdemeanors dismissed after completing deferred adjudication. The bill maintains current law which exempts offenders who have committed serious violent offenses, sexual offenses, and family violent offenses from ever receiving an OND.

An OND allows for an individual's criminal record (or part of their criminal record) to be sealed from the general public. An OND also allows an offender to not disclose their criminal record to employers or landlords when asked. However, even after the grant of an OND, the record is still available to sensitive fields, such as law enforcement agencies, financial institutions, healthcare institutions, and educational entities.

Currently, only certain individuals who have had their felony or misdemeanor dismissed after completion of a term of deferred adjudication are eligible for an OND. This prevents a large group of amenable individuals who have been convicted and either incarcerated or completed community supervision for certain low/non-violent, non-sexual misdemeanors the opportunity to receive an OND.

A criminal record can be a crippling barrier to obtaining employment. Studies show that ex-offenders who are gainfully employed are much less likely to re-offend. Thus, a responsible, limited expansion of current nondisclosure law is important in giving reformed offenders a second chance, creating a safer Texas, and increasing the workforce with individuals who are no longer limited by their minor criminal histories.

S.B. 1902 expands current eligibility for an OND to one-time offenders of non/low violent, non-sexual, non-family violent misdemeanors, who have completed their term of community supervision or incarceration. Depending upon the offense and type of adjudication, certain waiting periods are put in place to ensure that these individuals can prove to the court and society that they are reformed prior to petitioning for an OND.

S.B. 1902 maintains current law which exempts serious violent offenders, sexual offenders, and family violent offenders from ever receiving an OND. Further, S.B. 1902 provides a pure second chance. Individuals petitioning for an OND who served community supervision or incarceration for an eligible misdemeanor who have been convicted, placed on deferred adjudication, or received an OND previously are not eligible. Further, S.B. 1902 maintains current law which indicates that individuals become ineligible if they are convicted or placed on deferred adjudication for any non-traffic offense during their prescribed waiting period.

S.B. 1902 also streamlines the procedure for a grant of an OND to offenders who received a dismissal of a misdemeanor (excluding crimes against the person) after a deferred adjudication. The court must grant the OND after dismissal (minimum 180 days after receiving deferred adjudication), assuming other eligibility requirements are met. The offender need not file a petition, as opposed to current procedure.

S.B. 1902 will effectively reduce recidivism rates, increase public safety, and provide a second chance to millions of Texans to provide for themselves, families, and society as a whole. (Original Author's / Sponsor's Statement of Intent)

C.S.S.B. 1902 amends current law relating to the eligibility of criminal defendants for an order of nondisclosure of criminal history record information and authorizes a fee.
