A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to the Texas Balance of Powers Act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. (a) This Act shall be known as the Texas Balance of Powers Act.

(b) The legislature finds that:

(1) The people of the several states comprising the United States of America created the federal government to be their agent for certain enumerated purposes and nothing more.

(2) The Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution defines the total scope of federal power as including only those powers specifically delegated by the Constitution to the federal government. Those powers not explicitly delegated by the Constitution to the federal government are reserved to the states or to the people themselves.

(3) Each power delegated to the federal government by the United States Constitution encompasses only that power as it was understood at the time it was delegated, subject only to an expansion or limitation of that power by a subsequent amendment to the Constitution.

(4) The United States Constitution authorizes the United States Congress to exercise only those powers enumerated in Section 8, Article I, of the Constitution, as well as certain other powers delegated to Congress by subsequent amendments to the

1 Constitution. Article VI of the Constitution makes supreme the 2 Constitution and federal laws enacted pursuant to the Constitution, 3 further requiring that public officials at all levels and in all
4 branches of government support the Constitution.

5           (5) Paragraph 3, Section 8, Article I, of the United 6 States Constitution delegates to the United States Congress only 7 the specific power to regulate commerce with "foreign nations, and 8 among the several states, and with Indian tribes." This provision 9 was never intended to authorize the federal government to assume 10 any power beyond the regulation of transactions in those three 11 specific categories. Through vastly distorted interpretations of 12 the meaning of the Commerce Clause not authorized by the 13 Constitution or an amendment to the Constitution, the legislative, 14 executive, and judicial branches of the federal government have 15 adopted and implemented countless measures not authorized by the 16 language or original intent of the clause, many of which usurp the 17 duties and responsibilities reserved to the states by the Tenth 18 Amendment.

19           (6) Paragraph 1, Section 8, Article I, of the United 20 States Constitution delegates to the United States Congress the 21 power to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and 22 general welfare of the United States. The General Welfare Clause 23 was intended and understood to ensure that Congress, when 24 exercising an enumerated power, does so in a manner that serves all 25 states generally, and no state or person singularly.

26           (7) The final paragraph of Section 8, Article I, of the 27 United States Constitution delegates to the United States Congress

1 the limited power to make laws "necessary and proper" to carry into 2 execution the powers delegated by the Constitution to the United 3 States government. Using this clause to expand federal power beyond
4 specifically enumerated powers granted by the Constitution
5 violates the plain language and original intent of that clause.

6 (8) The constitutional limitation on the scope of 7 federal power and the reservation of other powers to the states or 8 to the people are matters of contract between this state and its 9 people, and the United States, as of the date this state was 10 admitted to the United States of America.

11 (9) The federal government has acted in a manner 12 inconsistent with the language, intent, and spirit of the United 13 States Constitution in direct violation of the Constitution and the 14 contract between this state and its people, and the United States.
15 This state rejects the unauthorized and excessive abuse of power by 16 the federal government that infringes on the rights of this state 17 and its people and that unconstitutionally undermines, diminishes, 18 and disregards the balance of powers between the states and the 19 federal government established by the Constitution.

20 (c) In accordance with the United States Constitution, the 21 federal government is denied by this state the power to take any 22 legislative, executive, or judicial action that violates the 23 Constitution, specifically including those actions that
24 unconstitutionally undermine, diminish, or disregard the balance
25 of powers between the states and the federal government established
26 by the Constitution.

27 (d) This Act serves as notice from this state to the federal

1 government to cease and desist any and all unconstitutional
2 activities that are outside the scope of the power delegated to it
3 by the United States Constitution, including those activities that 4 unconstitutionally undermine, diminish, or disregard the balance
5 of powers between the states and the federal government established
6 by the Constitution.

7 (e) This Act calls on all state and local officials, 8 especially members of law enforcement, prosecutors, members of 9 local governing bodies, the attorney general, and the governor to 10 honor their oath to preserve, protect, and defend the United States 11 Constitution, based on the original intent of that document unless 12 modified by subsequent constitutional amendment, and as such to 13 stop unconstitutional federal actions.

14 (f) This state and its people retain their sovereign power 15 to regulate the affairs of this state, subject only to the 16 limitations prescribed by the United States Constitution.

17 SECTION 2. Subtitle Z, Title 3, Government Code, is amended
18 by adding Chapter 393 to read as follows:
