CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1           WHEREAS, The untimely death of El Paso Constable Robert 2 Parker White on November 1, 2014, at the age of 45, brought a great 3 loss to many in the community who knew and admired him; and

4           WHEREAS, Killed while providing security for an event, 5 Constable White had served the residents of Precinct One with the 6 utmost distinction for nearly two decades; he was first elected in 7 1996 and won reelection four times; during his tenure, he was 8 instrumental in helping to develop a constable code of conduct, and 9 other officers in his department relied on his extensive experience
10 and leadership; he completed numerous state-sanctioned law 11 enforcement courses and received a host of accolades for his 12 contributions; and

13           WHEREAS, This exemplary public servant was especially 14 committed to the safety and well-being of area youth, and he was an 15 educator as well as a law enforcement officer; for 17 years, Robert 16 White was employed as a physical education teacher and coach at 17 Putnam Elementary School, and he earned the respect and admiration
18 of colleagues and students alike; he was proactive in looking out 19 for the students, and he was an exceptionally compassionate and 20 caring mentor, counselor, and role model; and

21           WHEREAS, Born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, on June 13, 1969, he 22 attended Coronado High School and El Paso Community College, where 23 he became very active in campus activities; he graduated from the 24 Law Enforcement Training Academy and went on to complete his

1 bachelor's degree in special education and his master's degree in 2 education at The University of Texas at El Paso; and

3 WHEREAS, Constable White became involved in civic life at an 4 early age, and he was elected president of the El Paso Young 5 Democrats; later, he proudly represented the party in his 6 successful bids for office, and he was active in Democratic 7 initiatives; he volunteered for the Westside Democrats in many 8 capacities, including sergeant-at-arms, and he was inducted into 9 the El Paso County Democratic Party Hall of Fame; and

10 WHEREAS, Devoted to his Catholic faith and to his family,
11 Constable White was the loving father of four children,
12 Christabelle, Harrison, Allison, and Robert; he loved to act and 13 played small roles in local productions, and he also enjoyed 14 golfing and following Cowboys football and Chihuahuas baseball, or 15 just admiring the El Paso skyline; and

16 WHEREAS, Robert White made a positive difference in countless 17 lives, and although his time on this earth was far too brief, he 18 will forever be remembered for his warmth, kindness, and tremendous 19 dedication to public service; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the 84th Legislature of the State of Texas
21 hereby honor the memory of Constable Robert Parker White and extend
