H.R. No. 169

RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Former Houston Astro Craig Biggio is being inducted 2 into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 3 2015, and this honor provides fitting recognition for an athlete 4 who proved himself one of the best players of his era; and

5 WHEREAS, Born on December 14, 1965, in Smithtown, New York, Mr. Biggio was a multisport star at Kings Park High School; 6 7 recruited by a number of college programs for his skills as a football player, he instead chose to pursue his passion for 8 9 baseball at Seton Hall University; he earned All-American recognition while playing for the Pirates, and he was subsequently 10 chosen by the Houston Astros in the first round of the Major League 11 Baseball draft in 1987; and 12

WHEREAS, This versatile player made his major league debut in 14 1988, after a short but successful stint in the Astros' minor league 15 system; he won the starting catcher spot the next year, and he 16 earned the first of a club-record seven selections to the All-Star 17 Game in 1991; he switched to second base the following season, and 18 he logged more than a decade at that position in addition to playing 19 both center field and left field for Houston; and

20 WHEREAS, Over the course of his exemplary 20-year tenure, 21 Mr. Biggio compiled a .281 batting average, 3,060 hits, 291 home 22 runs, and 1,175 runs batted in; his 668 career doubles are more than 23 any other right-handed batter in major league history, and he is the 24 only player to ever realize the impressive combination of tallying 25 600 doubles, 250 home runs, 2,700 hits, and 400 stolen bases; his

H.R. No. 1691 myriad professional achievements also include winning four Gold2 Glove Awards and five Silver Slugger Awards; and

3 WHEREAS, Always a fan favorite, Mr. Biggio endeared himself 4 to the Astros' faithful with his hustling style of play as well as 5 the intentionally dirty batting helmet he wore to the plate; he was 6 an opening day starter for Houston for 19 consecutive seasons, and 7 along with such teammates as Jeff Bagwell and Lance Berkman, he was 8 one of the beloved "Killer Bs" who paced the Houston attack in the 9 1990s and 2000s; and

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Biggio was an integral part of the 2005 squad 11 that reached the World Series, making the franchise's first and 12 only appearance to date in the Fall Classic; another highlight of 13 his career came in his final season, when he slugged his 3,000th 14 career hit against the Colorado Rockies on June 28, 2007; and

WHEREAS, A player who demonstrated outstanding skill and gritty determination on the baseball diamond over the course of two decades, Craig Biggio may take justifiable pride in his remarkable accomplishments, and he is indeed deserving of this prestigious hall of fame honor; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 84th Texas 21 Legislature hereby congratulate Craig Biggio on his induction into 22 the National Baseball Hall of Fame and extend to him sincere best 23 wishes for the future; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for Mr. Biggio as an expression of high regard by the Texas House of Representatives.
