

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Those Texans who give freely of their time and 2 talents to benefit the larger community make the world a better
3 place through their actions, and Elizabeth Graham Hill of Houston, 4 who passed away on June 1, 2014, was indeed one such person; and

5           WHEREAS, Born in Olney on July 12, 1924, to Roy Jewel and Ruby 6 Andrews Graham, Elizabeth Ann Graham grew up on the family ranch in 7 Anarene; after graduating from Olney High School, where she was 8 named Most Popular Girl and Band Sweetheart as well as the state
9 champion in declamation, she attended Stephens College in Columbia, 10 Missouri, and earned a place on the school's Dean's List; and

11           WHEREAS, Bitsy Graham, as she was known to friends, 12 subsequently transferred to The University of Texas at Austin to 13 study social science, and it was there that she met her future
14 husband, John Hill; Mr. Hill spent many years in public office,
15 serving Texas as secretary of state, attorney general, and chief
16 justice of the state supreme court, and Mrs. Hill unfailingly 17 supported her husband throughout his career; and

18           WHEREAS, The couple shared more than six rewarding decades 19 together before Mr. Hill's passing in 2007; over the years, they 20 were blessed with a family that grew to include 3 children, Melinda,
21 John, and Martha, as well as 10 grandchildren and 10
22 great-grandchildren; and

23           WHEREAS, Mrs. Hill devoted much time and energy to community 24 service, assuming leadership roles in such organizations as the

1 Blue Bird Circle and the Settlement Club; a valued member of 2 St. Luke's United Methodist Church, she hosted the first meetings
3 of the Young Life ministry in her home in the mid-1960s, and she 4 completed training as a Stephen Minister in her 80s; above all, she 5 treasured the volunteer work she did as a mentor to inmates through 6 the InnerChange Freedom Initiative; and

7 WHEREAS, Possessed of grace, compassion, and a wonderful
8 sense of humor, Elizabeth Hill remained engaged in the world
9 throughout her life and found great joy and inspiration in helping 10 others; now, therefore, be it

11 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 84th Texas
