

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Members of young professionals organizations,
2 student governments, and other youth groups from around the state 3 are gathering at the Texas Capitol in Austin on April 17, 2015, to 4 gain further insight into the workings of state government; and

5           WHEREAS, Young people and students are among the Lone Star 6 State's most important resources, contributing greatly to the 7 economic prosperity of present and future generations; groups such 8 as those in attendance today allow emerging leaders to network, to 9 learn from one another, and to develop vital career skills; and

10           WHEREAS, With the 84th Legislative Session well under way, 11 the Capitol is a source of bustling political activity, offering 12 visitors an excellent opportunity to see their state government in 13 action; the civic-minded young Texans attending this event have 14 demonstrated commendable initiative and enthusiasm about the 15 democratic process, which will serve them well throughout the 16 coming years; and

17           WHEREAS, By striving to strengthen their professional ties 18 and build on their knowledge about state government, these dynamic 19 young Texans are helping to create a bright and promising future for 20 the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it
