11 and began hosting a small Bible study group in his home; he became a 12 licensed minister in the Church of God in Christ in 1987 and an 13 ordained elder in 1989; shortly afterward, he organized the 14 Neighborhood House of Prayer in Dallas, a church he guided with 15 selfless devotion for close to four decades; and

16           WHEREAS, Seeking additional ways to serve the community,
17 Elder Proctor established the Neighborhood Christian Learning
18 Center of Dallas, a licensed early childhood facility that partners
19 with the Dallas Independent School District pre-K school readiness
20 initiative; known to youngsters at NCLC of Dallas as "PaPa," Elder
21 Proctor led the center as its administrator until his health 22 declined, and he saw it recognized by the Texas Education Agency as 23 a Pre-K Center of Excellence; to date, the center has provided
24 services to more than 2,500 children in Dallas County; Elder

1 Proctor was also responsible for founding the Neighborhood Outreach
2 Center of Hope, a 24-hour, faith-based rehabilitation facility and 3 shelter for former inmates and individuals recovering from 4 substance abuse; and

5 WHEREAS, This esteemed clergyman also rendered outstanding
6 service to the Texas East Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Church
7 of God in Christ; in 1984, he became the first adjutant to Bishop 8 James Edward Lee Sr., and he served additionally as assistant to 9 Superintendent Robert L. Nichols Sr. in the Spiritual Life
10 District; and

11 WHEREAS, Elder Proctor endeared himself to those in and 12 outside his congregation with his sunny demeanor and contagious
13 smile; he reached a wide audience in the Dallas/Fort Worth area
14 through his weekly "Prayer of Faith" radio broadcast, and he often 15 gathered with other pastors, politicians, and local leaders to 16 enjoy a meal and discuss how they could make their community 17 stronger; in 2006, he was honored for his myriad good works with his 18 induction into the Elite News Religious Hall of Fame; and

19 WHEREAS, With his kind and caring ways, Elder Cecil Ray 20 Proctor uplifted the hearts of numerous people, and he will long be 21 remembered with deep affection by his loved ones and by the dear
22 friends he made along life's journey; now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 84th Texas
24 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the memory of Elder Cecil Ray 25 Proctor and extend sincere sympathy to the members of his family: to
