6 2012, Chris Traylor is known for his expertise in the mechanics of 7 the state's health and human services delivery system; from 8 2010-2012, he was commissioner for the Texas Department of Aging 9 and Disability Services, and he directed the implementation of 10 broad reforms to improve state-supported living centers for people 11 with profound developmental disabilities; and

12 WHEREAS, Mr. Traylor served the Health and Human Services
13 Commission from 2006 to 2009 as associate commissioner for Medicaid 14 and the Children's Health Insurance Program; he guided the 15 development of health passports for children in foster care, and 16 the STAR Health program gained national recognition for enhancing 17 coordination of services; moreover, he helped integrate acute and 18 long-term care services for the elderly and individuals with 19 disabilities, thereby reducing the wait for access to assistance;
20 and

21 WHEREAS, In 2004, Mr. Traylor joined the commission as 22 director of the Central Program Management Office, and he served as 23 chief of staff; he brought to the organization a wealth of 24 experience gained in numerous leadership roles at the Department of

1 Human Services, including deputy commissioner for government
2 relations, regional administrator, and public information officer;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, Mr. Traylor entered public service in Washington,
5 D.C., as a legislative staffer for United States Senator Phil Gramm
6 and then for U.S. Representative Beau Boulter; he later served his 7 fellow Texans as legislative director for State Senator Drew Nixon
8 and as chief of staff for State Representative Harvey Hilderbran; a 9 graduate of Texas Tech University, Mr. Traylor holds a bachelor's 10 degree in telecommunications; and

11 WHEREAS, Throughout his tenure in state government, Chris
12 Traylor has demonstrated a strong commitment to the vital mission
13 of the Texas health and human services system, and he may indeed
14 take pride in his contributions; now, therefore, be it

15 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 84th Texas
16 Legislature hereby honor Chris Traylor for his outstanding service 17 with the Texas Health and Human Services Commission and extend to 18 him sincere best wishes for the future; and, be it further

19 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 20 prepared for Mr. Traylor as an expression of high regard by the 21 Texas House of Representatives.
