5 Alabama, when he traveled to Texas in 1839 to purchase 320 acres of 6 land in what would later become the Jenkins community; the 7 following year, he moved with his wife, the former Betsy Robinson,
8 and their children to the property and constructed a new home
9 reminiscent of those he saw while living in Tennessee; the log cabin
10 featured two 18-foot square rooms separated by a 12-foot wide 11 dog-trot hallway, with deep porches stretching the full length of 12 the house; and

13 WHEREAS, The cabin has remained at the same location ever 14 since its completion, and the Texas Historical Commission has 15 proclaimed the land a Texas Historic Archaeological Site and has 16 designated the cabin a Texas Historic Landmark; in 2011, the East
17 Texas Communities Foundation began a three-year restoration 18 project to return the home to its original condition; and

19 WHEREAS, In tribute to this milestone anniversary, a 20 celebration is being hosted that will include tours of the cabin, a 21 Confederate Honor ceremony for Edward Robinson and James Leonard
22 Truitt, and a special program presentation featuring area 23 officials; and
