S.C.R. No. 38

1 SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, For countless young readers, books open a window to 3 a realm of imagination and possibility, and in recent years, the 4 city of Abilene has undertaken a series of unique efforts to 5 showcase the wonders of children's literature; and

6 WHEREAS, Abilene is the home of the National Center for 7 Children's Illustrated Literature, the only museum in Texas that 8 exclusively collects artwork from best-selling, award-winning 9 children's book illustrators; established in 1996, the center has 10 curated and toured nearly 60 exhibits in close to 40 states, which 11 are enjoyed by one million people every year; and

12 WHEREAS, Further adding to the city's whimsical charm is its 13 extensive collection of outdoor sculptures based on characters from 14 children's classics; while walking the length of Everman Park, 15 visitors can encounter bronze statues in the likeness of 16 Dr. Seuss's creations, and heroes from the works of 17 author-illustrators William Joyce and David Shannon are brought to 18 life in locations throughout the city; young explorers can also 19 receive a "passport" to help them find Seymour, the character from 20 Walter Wick's Can You See What I See? books, who is hidden at 21 several arts and cultural landmarks; and

22 WHEREAS, In total, 23 pieces have been commissioned by the 23 Abilene Cultural Affairs Council as part of its Storybook Sculpture
24 Project, thought to be the largest endeavor of its kind in any city;

1 each year, new additions to the project are dedicated at the 2 Children's Art & Literary Festival, a popular annual celebration
3 that includes family-friendly activities throughout downtown
4 Abilene; the festival is a collaborative effort of schools,
5 libraries, churches, civic groups, and city leaders, drawing crowds 6 of thousands from across the state and nation; and

7 WHEREAS, Literary works for children hold a cherished place
8 on the bookshelves of Texas families, and the true greats of the 9 genre weave captivating tales with dazzling artwork that is fondly
10 remembered for a lifetime; by embracing and promoting an essential
11 experience of childhood, residents of Abilene have established a 12 delightful tradition for young and old alike, and their efforts
13 have made the community a must-see destination for readers of all 14 ages; now, therefore, be it

15 RESOLVED, That the 84th Legislature of the State of Texas
16 hereby designate the city of Abilene as the official Storybook
17 Capital of Texas; and, be it further

18 RESOLVED, That, in accordance with the provisions of Section
19 391.003\(e\), Government Code, this designation remain in effect 20 until the 10th anniversary of its designation; and, be it further

21 RESOLVED, That the children of our great state live happily 22 ever after.
