

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 85

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to honor the Texas Council on Family Violence and to recognize February 11, 2015, as Texas Council on Family Violence Day at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, A leading family abuse organization, the Texas Council on Family Violence is one of the largest domestic violence prevention agencies in the nation; it serves its constituents by working with its allies in Texas communities and with law enforcement and legal advocates; and

WHEREAS, The organization promotes safe and healthy relationships by assisting service providers, facilitating strategic prevention efforts, and creating opportunities for freedom from domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, The council aims to provide current and comprehensive information regarding domestic violence programs to local assistance agencies, law enforcement agencies, community members, and educators in order to more effectively address the issue of domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Council on Family Violence has made a difference in the lives of many individuals who are affected by family abuse, and it is indeed fitting that it be recognized for its outstanding work; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 84th Legislature, hereby commend the Texas Council on Family Violence on its exemplary service on behalf of victims of domestic violence and extend to its representatives best wishes for continued success; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for this organization as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.

Nelson

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on February 2, 2015.
