

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 238

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the state champions from the Ann Richards School for Young Women Leaders Youth and Government program; and

WHEREAS, The Ann Richards School for Young Women Leaders is an all-girls public school dedicated to preparing young women to attend and graduate from college, commit to a healthy and well-balanced lifestyle, lead with courage and compassion, and solve problems creatively and ethically in support of the global community; and

WHEREAS, The Youth and Government program teaches students the mechanics of the legislative and judicial processes of state government and provides them with the opportunity to study public issues, participate in the judicial process, serve as the media by creating a news broadcast, and write, present, debate, and amend legislation; through the years, the program's students have competed in numerous regional and state competitions; and

WHEREAS, This year, the school produced state champions in two categories of the Judicial Section; Josie MacLean, Libertad Escobar, Oceane Maher, Sadie Brown, Anjali Mani, and Chloe Coronado Winn won the Mock Trial competition, and Libertad Escobar was named Top Defense Attorney; and

WHEREAS, These young women have brought great honor to their school and families, and it is truly fitting that they receive special recognition for their hard work and their outstanding achievements; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 84th Legislature, hereby commend the state champions from the Ann Richards School for Young Women Leaders Youth and Government program and extend to them best wishes for continued success in all their endeavors; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for them as an expression of high regard from the Texas Senate.
