

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 415

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to welcome the coalition of civic-minded Texans gathering in Austin on March 23, 2015, to discuss transportation policy on Toll-Free Texas Day at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, In a combined effort, the dedicated members of three associations are advocating for the construction of new roads that will not require drivers to pay tolls; and

WHEREAS, Members of Texans Uniting for Reform and Freedom, the Eagle Forum, and Grassroots America-We the People are coming together to engage in discussion and debate and to represent their views as part of the process by which public policy is developed; and

WHEREAS, Each of these groups has successfully advocated for goals that its members support, and they have empowered countless citizens to speak out on issues of vital importance; they have worked closely with state and national policy groups, think tanks, and conservative groups across the country; and

WHEREAS, The continued prosperity of the Lone Star State depends on an effective transportation system, and concerned citizens have a vital role to play in the discussions surrounding this matter; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 84th Legislature, hereby recognize March 23, 2015, as Toll-Free Texas Day at the State Capitol and commend all those involved for their civic engagement.
