Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 26, 2015

TO: Honorable Larry Phillips, Chair, House Committee on Homeland Security & Public Safety

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB353 by King, Ken (Relating to the application of certain weapons laws to and liability for certain actions of volunteer emergency services personnel licensed to carry a concealed handgun.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code and Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to the application of certain weapon laws to volunteer emergency services personnel licensed to carry a concealed handgun. The bill would specify Chapter 101, Civil Practice and Remedies Code does not apply to certain claims involving the discharge of a handgun by certain volunteer emergency services personnel. The bill would create a defense to prosecution for volunteer emergency services personnel for certain offenses relating to the carrying a handgun on certain premises. The bill would add certain volunteer emergency personnel to a list of individuals that Section 46.02 and 46.03, Penal Code, does not apply.

Creating a defense for prosecution for any criminal offense is expected to decrease demands on state and/or county correctional agency resources due to fewer persons on community supervision, in county jail confinement, state correctional institution confinement, and/or parole. However, in the case of this bill, it is assumed that any reduction in the number of offenders supervised or incarcerated under this statute would not significantly impact state correctional agencies' workload and programs.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
