Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 18, 2015

TO: Honorable Phil King, Chair, House Committee on State & Federal Power & Responsibility, Select

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB413 by Goldman (Relating to protection of the right to keep and bear arms within the State of Texas.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code to declare invalid and unenforceable any federal law or order that infringes on certain specified rights associated with the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution or Section 23, Article I, of the Texas Constitution. It is assumed any costs associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be absorbed within existing resources. The bill would take effect September 1, 2015.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
