

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 16, 2015

TO: Honorable Abel Herrero, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1627 by Coleman (Relating to the use of deadly force in defense of a person or property.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would change the circumstances under which a person is allowed to use deadly force in defense of a person or property. Under the provisions of the bill, certain circumstances are clarified, and others are narrowed. This analysis assumes the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant impact on state correctional agencies.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
