

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 21, 2015

TO: Honorable Tracy O. King, Chair, House Committee on Agriculture & Livestock

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1816 by Burrows (Relating to the training requirements for renewal of a private pesticide applicator license.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Agriculture Code relating to training requirements for renewal of a private pesticide applicator license. The bill would allow a private applicator to satisfy all or part of the applicator's training requirements with training in water conservation. The Texas Department of Agriculture indicates the agency can implement bill provisions within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
