

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 24, 2015

TO: Honorable Harold V. Dutton, Jr., Chair, House Committee on Juvenile Justice & Family Issues

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1824 by Lucio III (Relating to the applicability of certain definitions and certain laws governing attorneys ad litem and amicus attorneys in family law proceedings.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill amends Title 2 of the Family Code, which relates to a child in relation to the family, to clarify when the definitions in Chapter 101 apply to Title 2. The bill also states that Chapter 107, which relates to special appointments and social studies, applies with regard to the appointment of an attorney ad litem or an amicus attorney under Title 2.

The Office of Court Administration does not anticipate any significant fiscal impact to the state court system resulting from the bill.

This bill would take effect on September 1, 2015.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal impact to local courts is anticipated.
