

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 23, 2015

TO: Honorable Troy Fraser, Chair, Senate Committee on Natural Resources & Economic Development

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1926 by Kacal (Relating to the governance of certain municipal power agencies; providing authority to issue bonds.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would add a Subchapter to the Utilities Code relating to Municipal Power Agencies (MPA). The bill would add an alternative set of rules and regulations of which a MPA may be governed, if so chosen by the MPA. The bill permits a MPA to engage in wholesale transmission without restriction on the recipient. The bill would permit a MPA to issue public securities in order to finance electric facilities or improvements to facilities and to contract for the expenditure of proceeds from public securities. The bill outlines procedures for the dissolution of a MPA.

The Office of Attorney General anticipates any legal work resulting from the passage of the bill could be reasonably absorbed within current resources.

The Public Utility Commission indicates the costs associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be reasonably absorbed within current resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
