

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 20, 2015

TO: Honorable René Oliveira, Chair, House Committee on Business & Industry

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1984 by Bonnen, Greg (Relating to the aerospace and aviation office of the Texas Economic Development and Tourism Office and to the aerospace and aviation advisory committee.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

This bill would amend Government Code to direct the Aerospace and Aviation Office in the Trusted Programs Within the Office of the Governor to develop and report on certain policy initiatives and reforms for the aerospace industry of Texas. The bill provides detail on the membership requirements for the aerospace and aviation advisory committee and assigns the committee additional responsibilities. This bill would take effect September 1, 2015.

The Office of the Governor, Texas Workforce Commission and higher education institutions indicate that the duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources. The Higher Education Coordinating Board indicates there would be a minimal cost associated with implementing the provisions of the bill. It is assumed that these costs could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
