Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 20, 2015

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2301 by Riddle (Relating to time credits awarded against the cumulative period of commitment or treatment of certain defendants determined to be incompetent to stand trial.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to the maximum period of commitment or outpatient treatment for a person found incompetent to stand trial. The bill would repeal the mandate that the court must credit the time that the defendant is confined in a correctional facility before the initial order of commitment or order for outpatient treatment services is entered, against the maximum period of commitment. The court would still be authorized to do so at its discretion.

The Department of State Health Services and the Office of Court Administration indicate that provisions of the bill could be implemented with existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
