Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 11, 2015

TO: Honorable Harold V. Dutton, Jr., Chair, House Committee on Juvenile Justice & Family Issues

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2372 by Dutton (Relating to training requirements for juvenile correctional officers employed by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Human Resources Code relating to training for Juvenile Correctional Officers (JCOs) employed by Texas Juvenile Justice Department. Under the provisions of the bill, out of the required 300 hours of training, JCOs would have to complete a minimum of 240 hours of training before receiving job duties, and the remaining 60 hours within the first year of employment.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
