

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 14, 2015

TO: Honorable Charles Schwertner, Chair, Senate Committee on Health & Human Services

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2903 by Davis, Sarah (Relating to training requirements for certain child-care workers.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend minimum training standards for employees, directors and operators of certain child care facilities under Chapter 42, Human Resources Code, by increasing the number of training hours required and adding provisions regarding how long before the training must be completed. The training could be completed in person or online. The Department of Family and Protective Services indicates that costs associated with implementing the bill could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
