Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 19, 2015

TO: Honorable Jane Nelson, Chair, Senate Committee on Finance

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3532 by Herrero (Relating to access to certain confidential information provided in an application for an exemption from ad valorem taxation.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Section 11.48 of the Tax Code, relating to confidential property tax information, to add appraisal district agents who perform appraisal services for the appraisal district to the list of individuals to whom confidential information in exemption applications filed with the chief appraiser may be disclosed. This confidential information includes driver's license numbers, personal identification certificate numbers, and social security numbers.

The bill would not affect taxable property values, tax rates, collection rates, or any other variable which might affect the revenues of units of local governments or the state.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2015.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
