

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 13, 2015

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB737 by Rodríguez (Relating to certain protective orders and magistrate's orders for emergency protection.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, relating to certain protective orders and magistrate's orders for emergency protection. The bill would create requirements for timely notice of orders entered by magistrates to law enforcement and other recipients, as well as adding electronic submission requirements. The Office of Court Administration and the Department of Public Safety (DPS) indicate no significant fiscal implication to either the court system or DPS is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
