House Committee on International Trade & Intergovernmental Affairs

3/31/2016

The committee met jointly with Agriculture & Livestock.

The chair began the posted agenda of evaluating ways in which Texas can continue to help promote our domestic agriculture products, both across the nation and internationally, and to strengthen our state's international ties for the purpose of exporting Texas food and fiber. (Joint charge with the House Committee on Agriculture & Livestock)

Testimony taken/registration recorded. (See attached witness list.)

The chair began the posted agenda of invited testimony only specifically exploring the impact that an open U.S.-Cuba trading relationship would have on Texas.

Testimony taken/registration recorded. (See attached witness list.)

At 4:36 p.m., on the motion of the chair and without objection, the meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the chair.
