RULE 1

Texas House of Representatives, 84th Legislature
Committee on Special Purpose Districts

Committee Rule Related to the Electronic Distribution of Materials

For the purpose of complying with all Texas House Rules related to the distribution of materials to committee members prior to a measure being laid out for the first time in committee, the House Committee on Special Purpose Districts may distribute all materials electronically through the committee's Dropbox. If a Member would like a hard copy of the materials, the individual Member's staff may print those materials for that Member. The committee may issue a hardback binder for the purpose of holding printed committee materials.

This rule shall be applied to the distribution of all committee materials throughout the 84th Legislative Session.

(Adopted February 25, 2015.)
