

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, A rich and purposeful life dedicated to serving
2 others drew to a close with the passing of Bettye J. Glover of Cedar 3 Park on July 3, 2017, at the age of 80; and

4 WHEREAS, The former Bettye Jarrell was born in Wink on 5 February 18, 1937, to Jerry and Carolyn Jarrell; in 1955, she 6 graduated as valedictorian of Winters High School, and that same
7 year, she wed William Sanders Glover Jr.; the couple shared a
8 rewarding marriage that spanned 13 years, until Mr. Glover's death 9 in 1968; and

10 WHEREAS, After her husband's passing, Mrs. Glover moved to 11 Austin and earned her real estate agent's and broker's licenses, and 12 she went on to run B and G Properties with her longtime friend,
13 Ginny Bronson; above all else, she devoted herself to raising her 14 four children, Sandra, Angela, Jerry, and Curt; and

15 WHEREAS, Mrs. Glover was a loving and supportive parent, but 16 she also knew how to keep her charges in line; on weekends, she 17 asked the children only once to do their chores, and if that didn't 18 work, she played Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass at top volume,
19 rousing them to their labors with the band's breezy Latin hits 20 cranked up to 11; she encouraged and often participated in their 21 pastimes and pursuits, from riding motorcycles and "mudding" to 22 various entrepreneurial endeavors, and she was always ready to lend
23 a hand with her grandchildren and her great-grandson, picking them 24 up from school, attending their activities, and helping them with

1 their homework; and

2 WHEREAS, A talented cook, Mrs. Glover maintained a vast 3 collection of cookbooks and spent many happy hours baking and 4 preparing meals for friends and loved ones; she took great delight
5 in nurturing her six beloved cats and feeding other animals in need 6 of a meal; her hobbies included gardening, reading mystery novels, 7 and collecting antiques, and she was the acknowledged queen of the 8 flea markets, maintaining a booth at the City-Wide Garage Sale in 9 Austin and at Wimberley Market Days; an avid fan of the Texas
10 Longhorns and the Dallas Cowboys, she also loved the movies, and 11 throughout her life she remained steadfast in her conviction that 12 Sean Connery was the only real James Bond; and

13 WHEREAS, Mrs. Glover was a member by proxy of the Texas
14 legislative community; her son Curt has worked for the Texas
15 Legislative Council for more than 32 years, and her son Jerry worked 16 for the council for 20 years until his retirement; following in the 17 family tradition, her grandson Joe has worked for the council for 18 four years; and

19 WHEREAS, A loving mother and grandmother and a true and loyal 20 friend, Bettye Glover did everything she could for those she loved 21 and never asked for credit, earning their lasting respect and 22 admiration for her warmth, humility, and strength of character;
23 now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 85th Texas
25 Legislature, 1st Called Session, hereby pay tribute to the memory 26 of Bettye J. Glover and extend heartfelt sympathy to the members of 27 her family: to her sister, Gwendelyn Bridge; to her children,

1 Sandra Glover Byler, Angela Gay Smith, Jerry Alan Glover and his 2 wife, Leony, and William Curt Glover and his wife, Linda; to her 3 grandchildren, Dustin and Valerie Smith, Cameron Smith, Logan and 4 Carly Campbell, Alaine Tremain, Lynell Glover, and Joe and Jacob
5 Glover; to her great-grandson, Aiden Tremain; and to her other 6 relatives and many friends; and, be it further

7 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 8 prepared for her family and that when the Texas House of 9 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Bettye
10 Glover.
