for a consumer or assists a consumer in obtaining:

(1) must be authorized under this subchapter;

(2) must be in the same form as the original extension of consumer credit; and

(3) must meet all the requirements applicable to the original extension of consumer credit, including the duration, transaction, and applicable income-based or vehicle value-based limitations under Section 393.631(a) or 393.633(a).

(b) For purposes of this section, a single-payment deferred presentment transaction, a multiple-payment deferred presentment transaction, a single-payment motor vehicle title loan, and a multiple-payment motor vehicle title loan are the different forms of extensions of consumer credit that a credit access business may obtain for a consumer or assist a consumer in obtaining.

(c) A person may not use a device, subterfuge, or pretense to evade the refinance requirements and limitations imposed on a credit access business under this subchapter.

Sec. 393.636. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS. (a) A credit access business shall maintain a complete set of records of all extensions of consumer credit obtained for consumers by the business or that the business assisted consumers in obtaining. The record pertaining to each extension of consumer credit must be retained until the third anniversary of the date the extension of consumer credit was obtained and must include:

(1) the name and address of the consumer;

(2) the principal amount of the cash advance or loan;

(3) the length of the original term of the extension of consumer credit, the number of installments or refinances, if applicable, and the length of the term of any refinance;

(4) the fees charged by the credit access business for obtaining for a consumer or assisting the consumer in obtaining the extension of consumer credit; and

(5) the documentation used to establish a consumer's income under Section 393.630.

(b) A credit access business shall retain a copy of each written agreement between the business and a consumer pertaining to an extension of consumer credit, including any agreement regarding refinancing an extension of consumer credit, until the third anniversary of the date on which the agreement was entered into.

(c) A credit access business shall retain a copy of each report filed under Section 393.627 until the third anniversary of the date on which the report was filed.

(d) A record described by this section must be available for inspection on request by the office during the normal business hours of the credit access business.

Sec. 393.637. RULES. The finance commission shall adopt any rules necessary to implement Sections 393.629-393.636.

SECTION _____.014. The following laws are repealed:

(1) Section 393.221, Finance Code; and

(2) Sections 393.601(2), (3), and (5), Finance Code.

SECTION _____.015. The changes in law made by this article apply only to an extension of consumer credit made on or after the effective date of this Act. An extension of consumer credit made before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the extension of consumer credit was made, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose. For purposes of this section, a refinance of an extension of consumer credit is considered made on the date the extension of consumer credit being refinanced was made.

SECTION _____.016. (a) The change in law made by this article to Section 393.223, Finance Code, applies only to a disclosure or notice provided by a credit access business on or after January 1, 2018. A disclosure or notice provided by a credit access business before January 1, 2018, is governed by Section 393.223, Finance Code, as that section existed immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(b) The Finance Commission of Texas shall adopt rules prescribing forms under Section 393.223(a), Finance Code, as amended by this article, not later than November 1, 2017.

SECTION _____.017. Section 393.636, Finance Code, as added by this article, applies only to a record created on or after the effective date of this Act. A record created before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect when the record was created, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.
